MEDIA RELEASE

On May 1, 2024, Hanover Police Department deployed personnel and coordinated resources to the Green at Dartmouth College. Hanover Police and other local and state law enforcement agencies responded to maintain public safety and assist in stopping unlawful conduct.

In total, 89 arrests were made after repeated warnings from law enforcement about unlawful conduct. All individuals were released on summons. Prosecution, upon review of evidence received by all law enforcement agencies involved, will determine appropriate charges.

Members of the Hanover Police Department remain committed to protecting the constitutional rights and safety of all individuals while responding with professionalism to actions that may violate the law or threaten public safety.
