

School Street Park is...

A beautiful place that transforms a 'vacant' public space in downtown Hanover into a vibrant habitat for creatures great and small

A garden that models sustainable landscape practices that people can adapt to their own yards

A public-private partnership supported by the town, citizens and community organizations

School Street Park is a truly sustainable project with systems in place for long-term maintenance

Sustaining
Landscapes